Growing up, precisely in my High School days, I came to terms with the obvious truth that my signature was more than just a stylish inscription. My senses had to agree that it was supposed to be a code which represents me. Therefore, wherever it is signed should have been undeniably authorized by me. For this reason, I had to get together a pen and a sheet of paper, just to make sure my signature passed authenticity and authority. That my integrity and identity mentioned produces Power can both, reliably, be hung on and Audacity. The Father sent His Signature (JESUS) to earth, in order that He might, through Him, draw all men to Himself (God). And for us, we must understand that, in order to have access of adoption into Kingship, we MUST first align with this Signature. Revelation 3:20; Titus 2:11. Dear reader, I urge you to deeply to access this Signature of Abba's and be adopted into light and love.

GOD'S Signature

MATT. 16:18-19, PHIL. 2:9-11

God's signature is Christ Jesus. Understanding the power of signature will help us comprehend the concept of today's message. Signature is a proof of approval in any business contract. It speaks of the intention of the signee more eloquently than words. This is why banks will not accept any cheque without the signature of the owner. No contract will be fully activated without the signature of both parties. Even in the court of law, evidence presented, be it medical, academic or otherwise must have the signature of the issuer - showing the approval of the individual.

In the same way, Jesus was approved of God to show man the way of salvation with evidence of signs and wonders. Acts of the apostle puts it this way. "Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and sings, which God did by him in the mist of you as you yourselves know.... The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a prince and a savior, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given them that obey him". Acts 2:32; 5:30-32.

Man, from inception, has always been in constant pursuit for the salvation of his soul—the escape from eternal damnation. This quest to free his soul from the punishment of the afterlife has always been the reason for his constant pursuit to know the only true God and his signature – the personality or means through which salvation is given. And most world teaches man that the signature of God lies within man. In other words, salvation lies in the evaluation of their deeds; the choice to always choose good over evil when tempted, or the courage to choose a certain lifestyle or manner of dressing over myriads of styles glamorized by the world. To these religions, the man who must receive God's salvation must be a man who has decided to pattern his life to follow certain rituals dictated to him by these religions.

The basis of his signature upon man will be because of His righteousness upon man, not because of man or his deeds. Put differently, God's signature upon man started because God initiated it and it will also end with God. It has nothing to do with man. Rom 5:19 says 'for as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.

And God did not give us Jesus Christ to be His signature of salvation without proof. God had to validate the authenticity of Jesus as being His signature with so many evidences. First was when He raised Him from the dead. Acts 17:30-31 says 'And in the time of ignorance God over look. But now commandeth man everywhere to repent: Because he hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that He hath raised him from the dead'. Secondly, he proved it with what the bible called infallible proofs – (Jesus raising the dead, healing the lame, blind, crippled, deaf and dumb from birth).

Beloved, God has answered the prayers and pursuit of man in the person of Jesus. He has given man this signature of salvation in the person of Jesus and validated Him in that He raised him from the dead and with infallible miracles. But whether or not you and me will get his signature after death lies in our walk and work with Jesus. Will you walk and work with him?

REJOICE, YOUR PRAYERS ARE ANSWERED

Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare. For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south", Psalm 75:1, 6.

With grateful heart, I want to give thanks to the Almighty God, the Creator of heaven and earth, the Living God, the God of signs and wonders, the God who answers prayers. Our Security, our hiding place, our provider, our maker, our all in all; for the safety, granted to our sisters that came from far and near and also our invitees. He is indeed a great God, ever present in times of need. The Sisters National Conference 2021 has come and gone but the memories will always remain fresh. His visitation was awesome. The glory will remain fresh in us.

Promotion and power come from nowhere on earth; only from God. He promotes one. He knows exactly what we need even before we ask him. I want you to consider your prayers answered. Let us take time to worship Him. He is the only one that understands what we are going through. He is the only one who has answers to all our questions. Let us not wait to see the result before we believe. "Ask and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: for every one that asketh receiveth: and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened". Matt. 7:7-8. Jesus encourages perseverance i.e active patience and determination in prayer. This means we must keep on asking, seeking and knocking. This does not mean that we need to beg God before He answers our prayers. It means that instead of worrying about a certain issue, we take it to God and acknowledge that the situation is in His hands. Asking means that we recognize our need and that we trust God to hear our prayers. Seeking means that our request is earnest and that we are willing to obey God and pursue His purposes when he responds with an answer or instruction. Knocking means that we keep bringing the request to God even when He does not respond quickly. Perseverance does not show a lack of faith, but a constant admission that we need God's help and have turned over our needs to Him. Christ's assurance that those who ask will receive from God is based on: (1) Keeping our priorities focused on God and seeking His kingdom purposes first. "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you". Matt. 6:33. Those who follow Christ are urged to seek above all else God's kingdom and His righteousness. It means making a long and consistent effort to obtain something. God's kingdom and righteousness are not passive matters; they are things we must actively pursue. (2) We should recognize God's fatherly goodness and love "you did not choose me but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you

NEVER AGAIN

ACT 6:8-15, 7:54-60, 12:1-11

The history of the church is littered with events characterized with martyrdom that would have been prevented if the church had intervened. Over the years, believers are killed, not because the opposing force are more powerful, but because the church did not stand in the gap, her persecutors were flourishing in their quest to eliminate all Christians.

Think about how Stephen was killed. Imagine the agonizing death James went through. The question is, if they could unite themselves and pray when Herod ceased Peter, what were they doing when he took hold of James. Where was the angel that saved Peter when James was imprisoned?

You must understand that the heaven is God's throne and the earth he has been giving to the sons of men. God cannot manifest in the earth realm without the instrumentality of man. He needs to be invited, to be given the platform to take action. And because the church did not activate his presence in church kept quiet. He was jailed, still the James' case, nothing church felt nothing, then came is execution announcement, still the church did not happened.

Today, the devil is infiltrating this spirit of non-chalancy in the mind of most Christians. Instead of standing on the word of God and rebuking that sicknesses and pains and commanding their healing, they've accept their predicament and embrace it as part of life. They've learnt to embrace instead of eject nemesis. Little wonder why the bible says 'keep thy heart with all diligence for out of it are the issues of life.' Prov. 4:23. It will interest you to know that the church did not pray because they thought Herod could not do anything. James was captured, the pray until finally he was killed. But when he laid his hand on Peter, then the church understood the power of Herod's authority. This was when they began to seek heaven's attention.

In today's church, many believers are learning this truth the hard way. After loosing a loved one, exhaust all their money to that sickness, do trial and error on several businesses then they begin to search the scriptures to find the promises and possibilities of God. Others don't even realize it until they die. The mind is a powerful weapon. In most cases, it is the seat that determines, whether you become rich or poor, strong or weak, live or die. Develop the habit of filling your heart with God's promises and speaking it, and I assure you that you will go home, look at those predicaments and say 'Never again!'.

REFLECTION

MARRY YOUR BEST FRIEND???

Jane bumped into her room where her roommate, Bracy was sitting on the bed. Bracy who was started, she jumped up and asked: "What's the matter, is all well?" Laughing hysterically, Jane replied: "Oh so I succeeded in making you scared... Ah, ah, relax. I am just excited today. You know that relationship conference I told you about that started today?" Yes, Bracy replied. I attended and was really blessed, the minister was just 'flowing', Jane said. She said some things that just quelled some confusion I've been having since last month when Cole proposed to me. Okay, Bracy said smiling...Please share with me, I'm all 'ears'.

The minister said we singles, should ONLY get married to one who is our best friend, and not someone we are not familiar with. You know what Bracy? Since Brother Cole proposed to me, I've been kind of confused because I don't even know anything about him before. We are not even friends. I feel more comfortable with Brother Caleb whom I have been close friends with, I just feel we will flow better together, than Brother Cole and I. Although, Caleb hasn't proposed to me, but he likes me, and I know he'll propose soon. We think alike, we have the same dress sense, he understands my body language, and very caring. Oh, I really like Caleb, he will be a better husband to me than Brother Cole. And you know what, we will be the best couple ever..." Jane said with so much smiles and 'butterflies in her belly'. After listening patiently to all Jane said, Bracy smiled and said; "Wait, I'll like to understand you more clearly. Let's get things straight. Are you saying God is leading you to Caleb and not Brother Cole?" Well, not really; Jane replied. I have actually been praying about Brother Cole. To be honest with you, God has actually been saying a lot about him to me which I penned down in my 'special book'. It seems like God is 'pointing' me to that direction! But, I don't know him. Bracy, Brother Cole and I aren't friends; Don't you get? Caleb's picture and his thoughts have always flooded my mind. Oh, my dear Caleb, such a calm, cool headed young man. Since we are best of friends, I am sure we will be a perfect match for each other. We won't even have issues getting along. So that's it Bracy...!" Jane, Janeee, Janeeeee...; Bracy pulling her ears, called out her friend's name, and said: "Hmmm, I don't want us to get confused on this journey of knowing and settling for God's will in marriage. But can I ask you these questions:

Does being friends with someone being misled. AUTOMATICALLY make them God's will for us in marriage, and automatically erases all forms of issues that may want to crop up in marriage?

Does it mean God whom you said is SINCERELY leading you to Brother Cole, who knows the END from the BEGINNING, who created both Cole and Caleb; do not know the RIGHT ONE you will FIT into as a HELPMATE? Wait! What if your dear Caleb whom you so much like and admire passionately, do not eventually propose to you? What if he also has another lady in mind but just enjoying and 'CRUISING' around with you as his friend just for the main time? Okay what of someone like me, that don't even have a 'male best friend', does it mean I won't get married? What if? "Bracyyyy...It is okay...It is okay!!!"...; Jane yelled.

Feeling sober, Jane said: "Bracy, I'm so sorry for yelling at you, but you know what? I'm really struggling in my heart between these two young men. These questions are 'piercing' my heart. Can you please join me in prayers on this matter...I also desire to do God's will. I don't want to be misled. I don't want to make the mistake my parents made. I also don't want to repeat the negative history of a broken marriage! I am ready and willing to submit to WHOEVER God brings"...Jane said with tears in her eyes... Bracy became emotional, got up, moved towards her friend, hugged her closely, encouraged her, and they both prayed together. (Let me stop my story here...)

MARRY YOUR BEST FRIEND? I totally DISAGREE with that submission!!! It is a subtle way of confusing singles. I'll rather say: BEFRIEND YOUR SPOUSE (OR INTENDING SPOUSE FOR THOSE IN GODLY COURTSHIP)!!! The person you call a best friend today, was once a stranger to you. Isn't it? Then, who says you can't also BUILD FRIENDSHIP with WHOEVER God will have you walk this journey with? Both the stranger and a friend? WHO MADE THEM???

Many times, because there is an idol in the heart, it often makes it difficult for a single brother or sister to leave a friend for the REVEALED WILL. This is why as Christian singles, you need to DEFINE EVERY RELATIONSHIP, and avoid UNDUE closeness with the opposite sex to avoid being overcrowded with their thoughts, and avoid

Many, especially single sisters have been confused and misled by so called relationship counsellors who keeps feeding them with words they WANT to hear about this marriage journey. Some sisters even go as far as saying, "God cannot lead me to someone I don't know before. He must be someone I know already, before I even think of praying about it...".

2 Timothy 4:3: "For the time is coming when [people] will not TOLERATE (endure) SOUND AND WHOLESOME INSTRUCTION, but, having EARS ITCHING [FOR SOMETHING PLEASING and gratifying], they will gather to themselves one teacher after another to a considerable number, CHOSEN TO SATISFY THEIR OWN LIKING AND TO FOSTER THE ERRORS THEY HOLD". Many singles today have been deceived to believe this 'WILL OF GOD thing' is too cumbersome; THAT IS A BIG LIE!!! It is far more EASIER, REWARDING and FRUITFUL than any other 'wheel'! This is one reason why the reality: KNOW GOD FOR YOURSELF; cannot be overemphasized!!! Many have married their so called best friends out of their own will, and in marriage, they turned out to be worst of enemies. The FIRST, is letting GOD LEAD! After being led, then you both can BUILD FRIENDSHIP, AND WORK ON YOUR MARRIAGE TOGETHER. You MUST BE READY TO PLAY YOUR PART in marriage. The SUCCESS of a marriage isn't automatic, you've got to WORK IT OUT, and FLESH subdue this FLESH by allowing the HOLY SPIRIT to CONTROL and GUIDE you.

Dear singles, A STRANGER TODAY, CAN BE YOUR BEST FRIEND TOMORROW IF GOD IS INVOLVED!!! All you both need to do is build your FRIENDSHIP together. That friendship you built with that best friend, wasn't built in a day right? Then who says you cannot BUILD AN INTENTIONAL FRIENDSHIP BLOCK with that man or woman God has revealed to you as His will for you even though you never knew each other before?

Now, don't misunderstand me here!!! I am not saying GOD CANNOT lead you to someone you are very familiar with; NO. But you must build a constant relationship with God and be OPEN to Him, be WILLING to accept WHOEVER He brings to you to walk this journey of marriage together; EITHER one you are familiar with, or a stranger!

But, you don't have to deceive yourself here. Know and ascertain if it is God speaking, and OBEY ACCORDINGLY. This is because you will have to live with the 'OUTCOME' of your decision for choosing that 'PACKAGE' above the other! So, let God take the LEAD...He can never be WRONG!!! Again I say, KNOW GOD FOR YOURSELF! The BIBLE has all the SECRETS you need to know about this marital journey and other areas of your life!!! Stop getting DISTRACTED by some so called speakers, who only come to teach you how to be more LAZY SPIRITUALLY and follow 'short cuts' because you have refused to sit with God as to get from Him directly the BLUEPRINTS for your life and marriage.

So my dear singles, I'LL RATHER SAY BEFRIEND YOUR SPOUSE!!! By God's grace, we'll be discussing how to BEFRIEND YOUR SPOUSE for the newly married, and INTENDING SPOUSE for those in Godly courtship in the next edition. Can we say this prayer together before I go? "My Heavenly Father, I thank You for You are always ready to guide and lead us. Please we ask that in whatever form we have directly or indirectly closed our eyes from Your TRUTH, or filled our hearts with our own IDOL, based on some errors we have listened to, which has prevented us from SEEING that which You have for us; Please Lord, forgive us!

From today, WE OPEN up our heart to whatever YOU ALONE have to say to us on this matter, and WE SUBMIT to your WILL on this matter. Give us the GRACE Lord to fully understand and accept Your REVEALED WILL...

Teach us how to BUILD FRIENDSHIP together and how to ENJOY Your LOVE in our marriage. Help us to be willing to play our parts and make those positive changes where necessary as the Holy Spirit reveals to us, that our marriage will be filled with Your PRESENCE always, and only fulfil Your DIVINE PURPOSE and be a BLESSING to others in JESUS MIGHTY NAME, AMEN".

PRACTICAL CHRISTIAN HOLINESS

I PET. 1:15-16; EPH. 4:24; HEB. 12:4

The first prerequisite to practical holiness is the born again experience. No sinner can be holy. Regardless of the good works, a sinner is a sinner. His adamic nature loathes righteous living, but the day he gets born again, he is given power to live holy. Jesus bore fruit according to His kind just like every tree bears fruit according to its kind. A child of God therefore is holy, while that of the devil is evil. For you to be holy, you must be recreated according to the image and likeness of Him that is called Holy. You must be made a new for you to be holy.

If we are to imitate any, it must be Jesus. He says be ye holy even as your heavenly father is holy. Holiness is not a slogan. It is a nature, a major feature of heaven and the ways of God. In all your life endeavors and activities, be holy. Do not say, it is my wedding day or graduation day, I wouldn't mind committing sin just this once. Holiness is a way of life of the redeemed. It should not be compromised. This holiness has been from the beginning and is the power of creation. You cannot change it. If you compromise it, it is at the expense of your soul.

The second step to holiness is to follow peace with all men. Let your heart be made right. God cannot change. If you want to make heaven you must be holy today and forever. Without holiness, beloved, no eyes can see the Lord, (See Jn. 3:8). Apostle Paul says, "I am crucified with him; nevertheless it is not I that live but Christ lives in me." For this reason he made it clear to us that those born of the spirit of God are spirits and those who live in flesh cannot please God. Enoch pleased God because he was holy. Those who live in flesh cannot please God who is a Spirit. Gal. 4:6-9 says, "and because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his sons into your heart, the Lord." What controls a man is not just his bodily members but he who dwells in him (satan or Jesus). Christ-like, beyond verbal profession. When Jesus is in a man, that man is controlled to live a righteous life. If it is the devil, that man is controlled to do evil such as raping his own daughter, beat his wife, steal, and commit all kinds of atrocity. Rom. 8:14 says, as many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

Many give excuses for committing sins. Enoch, without any mentor, practiced holiness. Abraham on the other hand was visited by the Lord because he had been living a holy life. God had to introduce himself to him and made him know he had been chosen. All he needed to do was walk before God and be perfect. How then can we say we are not able to live a life of holiness because of our children, wives, job and etc. Holiness is a covering to the righteous. You are not covered by good religion, doctrines of men, self-righteousness because they are filthy rags before God. If God's holiness is not covering you, you cannot make heaven.

Welcome Jesus into your life and by the time he steps in with his spirit's fire, your sins will be burnt up. You will be purged of them all like Isaiah the prophet. He had been a prophet of God, yet with unclean lips. The Lord in his mercy placed his fire upon Isaiah's tongue and he was presence of the indwelling Holy made ready for the master's use. Good works are nice. but do them as directed by the Holy Spirit and the fear of God. (I Cor. 6:9-20, 2 Cor. 6:16-18, Jn.1:12, 2 Cor. 7:1. Such is the practical Christian holiness we are talking about. We are the temple of God, and as God's special people, we should not give room for sin. There is joy and satisfaction in doing the will of God. Many pastors and believers while If you allow God to walk, move and have your total being; in Him you will be received up to his kingdom on the last day. Hand over those characters and habits to Jesus and He will help you. Yield to the spirit of God and He will always lead you to remember Sampson, if you think you are too wise, remember Solomon and his end. If you think you are careful, remember David, how Bathsheba's natural looks messed him up. Until you get to heaven beware. Holiness is the only acceptable qualification you can present to your God to enter heaven. Do not play with it. Do not just claim but practice it knowing that the doer of God's word, not the hearer, are justified. Always pray for sufficient grace to make it because the enemy is not at rest.

David was a man who enjoyed intimacy with God. Being a Shepherd boy who was left alone in the bush to man his father's flocks, he had lots of experiences as he played his harps, He communes with his God. In the heat of his encounters, he wrote the book of Psalms, there he revealed some secrets about the God of Israel.

In Psalm 91:1 David the psalmist revealed that "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty". Here, David writes about the secret place of Prayer and the shadow of God (the influence of God) that comes on humanity when they make contact with divinity. There is no man who continually dwells in the secret place of prayer that has not become a carrier of a dimension of God's grace. During Christ's earthly ministry, He often climbed the mountains before and after ministrations to 26:41.

pray down divine help for the successful completion of his ministry on earth. When He also was about recruiting His disciples, spent time on Mount Sinai, the cloud of knowing how weak the flesh was, and the need to come under the supernatural influence of God, He took them to the mountain top to show them the secret of the disciples via the indwelling Holy Spirit in great power He wielded. their lives; and He told them saying, "If But sadly, they fell asleep; you believe, and often He had to tell them how weak the flesh do extraordinary things without being was and hence the need influenced by an extraordinary power. As to yield the call to the Secret Place..." Watch and His disciples not to go out to minister. pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the Power, "And, behold I send the promise flesh is weak" -Mathew of My Father upon you, but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high"-Luke 24:49. And after they had tarried for days, and God saw the unity in their worship and yieldedness, He sent His Power upon them in the form of cloven tongues of fire: and they all came under the influence and shadow of God. From that very day, they never remained the same. The weakest amongst them became mighty and the timid amongst them became vocal. Drunk in the Holy Ghost, they continued the works of Christ (which Christ had told them that if they believed, they would do greater than He did in His physical body).

The power and influence of God came so much upon them that the likes of Peter became a healing vessel. "In so much that they brought forth the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least, the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them."-Acts 5:15. This Scripture reveals that Peter had come under that shadow of the Almighty, which David had written about in the Book of Psalms 91:1. So the community members who had one sickness or the other or whose relatives had been sick or under the manipulation of the kingdom of darkness started looking for Peter. Actually, they weren't looking for Peter, because they had always known Peter, but they were looking for that which had come upon Peter, "the shadow of God".

In the Old Testament, the Ark (presence of God) was carried in a cart: but in this time and age, the presence of God is carried by men, as John confirmed, saying, "...the Tabernacle of God is with men..." - Revelation 21:3. In the Secret Place of prayer, we activate the presence of God in our lives, thereby becoming solutions to the problems plaguing humanity. Though there are different graces at work in men today, yet God is still looking for men through whom He will reveal Himself afresh to the Church. There may be many people preaching, yet the labourers are few (those who are standing in the gap and labouring to draw down the saving power of God are few).

What do you make of the fact that Simon Peter was weak yesterday (with existing records of denying Jesus three times in less than an hour), left his Lord and went fishing. But when he yielded to the call to tarry in Jerusalem, and when he received the Spirit's quickening power, the same man preached and in one day, three thousand souls were added to the church. Dear reader, the current version of your personality may not be the version that will fulfill the prophecy on you. But when you heed to the call to the Secret Place, your countenance will be altered and you will become the version through whom God will restore a generation! But not until you yield... "For it doth not yet appear what we shall be..." -1 John 3:2.

Guard Your Hearing Ears.

|| The hearing ear and the seeing eye, the Lord hath made even both of them ~

Proverbs 20:12"

The Ear is one of the major sense organ whose function is not only for hearing but also helps in maintaining balance, these help us to be alert, communicate pleasure and fear e.g the sweet melody of a nerve soothing song, the annoying sound of a blaring horn in the traffic, the cheerful laughter from your children or even the romantic voice from your spouse all help stir our emotions because we can hear these, imagine a situation where an individual cannot hear at all!

Here are some ways to guard your ears and hearing

According to world Health Organization, 1.1 billion teenagers and young adults worldwide are at risk for noise induced hearing loss from unsafe use of audio devices. Reduce the volume by following the 60/60 rule which is not more than 60% volume for more than 60 minutes a day. Earbuds are dangerous as they fit directly next to the eardrum, where possible, opt for over the ear headphones.

Give your ears time to recover: Research have shown that your ears need an average of 16 hours of quiet to recover from loud activities.

Stop using cotton swabs in your ears: It is common for individuals to use cotton swabs to clean wax out of their ear canal but this act is unhealthy as this wax stops dust and harmful particles from entering into your ear canals, the use of objects such as pins, pen or stick must be ceased as they can damage your ear drum. If you have excess wax, you can clean around the canal with a damp towel gently or use ear wax removal solution over a period of few nights, the wax becomes soften and flow out on its own.

Stop self medications and take only as directed: certain medications such as non anti- steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAIDS) like aspirin, ibuprofen and naproxen can sometimes contribute to hearing loss. Discuss with your doctor before taking any medication and take them only as directed.

Keep your ears dry: Excess moisture can allow bacteria to enter and attack the ear canal which can cause ear infection such as swimmer's ear. After bathing or swimming, ensure you gently towel-dry your ears and if you can feel water in the ear, tilt your head to the side and lightly pull the ear lobe to let the water out.

Exercise: Studies have shown that exercise is good for your ears. Cardio exercises like walking, running, cycling gets blood pumping to all parts of your body including the ears; when cycling, always wear a helmet as a fall or injury to the head may harm your hearing.

Manage your stress level: Research shows that stress and anxiety is linked to both temporary and permanent tinnitus (a phantom ringing in the ears)

Get Regular Checkup: An annual checkup with your otolaryngologist is very important because signs of hearing loss will easily be diagnosed and promptly treated.

AS A REPORTER

The last women's Conference which held on the 25th to 27th of August, 2021 was truly a life transforming one. The first day through last had its own uniqueness and divine touch. You could literary perceive heaven's aroma and splendor. The teachings were powerful, each teachers had a life behind their messages, you could easily tell in their messages that they have experience and encountered the help of God. The turn out was massive,, it was obvious that everyone that came saw the star and was led to the headquarters which was the venue of the program. The reception of the protocol officials was heartwarming, the readiness of the ushers to work was note worthy, the cooking department did tremendously well, the moderators were all on fire, the registration units was organized, the ICT unit's hands were on deck; messages were recorded and sold out to those in attendance, other units also worked to capacity. The program in general I must say was a success; I speak of the last day briefly, it was a glorious end, the Lord truly visited the camp, I was blown away by God's visitation and then His supply of grace. My name is Ngozi Nita Ebuh I'm glad to report this program.

TESTIMONIES

Praise God, the God of Fishers of men has done it again. I returned from work one day and when it was time for dinner, I did not see, Odion, one of my children. I asked after him and his siblings told me he went to pee. I waited but he did not return so I searched round the house, and the neighbourhood, still I could not find him. I became really confused. I went from place to place asking and telling people. I also reported to the house of God. The church really prayed that is why I am testifying now. The search and tension intensified. Before I knew it, four days had passed. But I am glad to present my son to the church today. A friend called me and told me they have seen him. At first I doubted, but when they brought him home, I blessed God for not allowing me to cry this year.

Bro. Friday and His son

Praise God. Some months back, sickness lifted its ugly head in my life. I prayed, some church members prayed but then I was not getting better. It was not long, I began to struggle between life and death. While I was in coma, I was completely helpless. They fixed pipe in every part of my body yet I was dying. A day came that my spirit left my body. And I began to ascend. I realized I was on white garment and looking talk and beautiful. I jubilated. The Lord took me close to hell and I saw horrible things happening there. It is not a place to be at all. The fire is really beyond description likewise the torments. I became happy again when I left there with the Lord. I was happy with myself over my decisions while on earth. I was waving bye-bye to the world saying it is all over. At a looked down on the earth and saw Bro. I.k praying for my body on the hospital bed. I told him I cannot come back. He said no, you have not reap the fruit of your labour, again you have about two work left in your hand, you must return to complete them. On that, I saw reason with him and stepped down. By the time I entered my body, G.O came and began to pray for me insisting I must not die and then my spirit was fully restored. I am alive today by the will of God. Left for me, I found a better place. I advice everyone here to live right because heaven and hell is real. Do not allow anything to make you spend your eternity in hell. I give God things for my life.

REDEMPTION GROUND, 10/10/22021

1. Come sing, my soul, and praise the Lord,
Who hath redeemed thee by His blood;
Delivered thee from chains that bound,
And brought thee to redemption ground.

Redemption ground, the ground of peace!
Redemption ground, oh, wondrous grace!
Here let our praise to God abound,
Who saves us on Redemption ground!

2. Once from my God I wandered far,
And with His holy will made war;
But now my songs to God abound;
I'm standing on redemption ground.
3. Oh, joyous hour when God to me
A vision gave of Calvary;
My bonds were loosed, my soul unbound:
I sang upon redemption ground.

4. No works of merit now I plead,
But Jesus takes for all my need;
No righteousness in me is found,
Except upon redemption ground.

5. Come, weary soul, and here find rest;
Accept redemption, and be blest:
The Christ who died, by God is crowned
To pardon on redemption ground.

No, not one! No, not one!
None else could heal all our soul's diseases
No, not one! No, not one!

Jesus knows all about our struggles;
He will guide till the day is done;
There's not a friend like the lowly Jesus,
No, not one! No, not one!

No, not one! No, not one!
And yet no friend is so meek and lowly,
No, not one! No, not one!

3. There's not an hour that He is not near us,
No, not one! No, not one!
No night so dark but His love can cheer us,
No, not one! No, not one!

4. Did ever saint find this Friend forsake him?
No, not one! No, not one!
Or sinner find that He would not take him?

Trusting only Jesus!

4. Thus my journey I'll pursue,
Looking unto Jesus!
Till the land of rest I view,
There to dwell with Jesus!

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY! LORD GOD ALMIGHTY! 31/10/22021

1. Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty!
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!

2. Holy, Holy Holy! All the saints adore thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,
Which wert, and art, and evermore shall be.

3. Holy, Holy, Holy! Though the darkness hide thee,
Though the eye of sinful man thy glory may not see:
Only thou art holy, there is none beside Thee,
Perfect in power, in love and purity.

4. Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!
All thy works shall praise thy name in earth and sea;
Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and Mighty!
God in Three Persons, blessed Trinity!
